

Reading chairs

Instructions:

1. Put on an audio book or read aloud from a text.
2. The students walk around the room.
3. When the reading stops, they must find a seat. The student who doesn't have a chair is out.
4. Remove another chair and play again until there is only student remaining.

Requires:
chairs (1 less than the number of students in the class) and a book to read from or an audio book.
